

Cynthia V. Carrasco

Cynthia Carrasco served as Deputy General Counsel and Ethics Officer to Indiana Governor Eric Holcomb. In this capacity, Ms. Carrasco assisted with all legal matters related to the Office of the Governor. Prior to joining the Holcomb administration, Ms.

Carrasco served as Inspector General of the State of Indiana.

Having been appointed by former Governor Mike Pence, Ms. Carrasco is only the second person and the first woman to have held this post. The Office of Inspector General was created in 2005 and is statutorily charged with addressing fraud, waste, and wrongdoing in state government. Ms. Carrasco previously served as the Executive Director for the Indiana State Ethics Commission.

A native of El Paso, Texas, Ms. Carrasco graduated from the University of Texas at El Paso with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science, and earned her Juris Doctor degree from the Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law.
